Ready, Set, Let's Work! - Perspectives from Area Workforce Readiness Panelists

Panelists: Rue Ramsey – Tulsa Regional Chamber
Brittany Crane – Oklahoma CareerTech
Vicki Davila – Oklahoma Department of Rehabilitation Services
Heather Williams – Tulsa Technology Center

It's no secret that Oklahoma's workforce landscape is rapidly evolving, with challenges like worker shortages and skill gaps at the forefront. To tackle these pressing issues, organizations are enhancing their readiness and adaptability. Join us for a panelist presentation featuring key area resources that are leading the response to evolving staffing demands and preparing individuals to enter or re-enter the workforce. These experts facilitate continuous learning, aid in technology adaptation, and guide effective engagement strategies for organizations. In a state with diverse initiatives focused on workforce development, this program aims to provide actionable insights for optimizing talent strategies. Don't miss this opportunity to gain valuable knowledge and network with industry leaders dedicated to shaping a skilled workforce in Oklahoma.

September Learning Lab

Thursday, September 26 |2:00pm - 4:00pm|

Tulsa Tech - Client Service Center

Exploring Behavioral Insights & Personality Profiles in the Workplace

Presented by Kristi Spaethe, Shelley Cadamy, and Jamie Kilpatrick

Join us for an engaging Learning Lab session featuring expert speakers Kristi Spaethe, Shelley Cadamy, and Jamie Kilpatrick as they explore the value of behavioral insights and personality profiles in the workplace. This session will dive deep into how personality and behavioral assessments can unlock critical insights about team dynamics, individual performance, and leadership styles.

During this Learning Lab, we'll discuss:

- Personality Assessments: How they provide valuable information about individual preferences, strengths, and communication styles.
- Behavioral Assessments: Understanding behavior patterns and how they affect collaboration, decision-making, and problem-solving in the workplace.
- The Benefits in the Workplace: We'll explore why these tools are essential for improving team dynamics, enhancing leadership development, and fostering a more engaged and productive workforce.
